CRIMINAL CASES
IN CITY COURT.

Willard Cragun Convicted of Assaulting a Woman in Dispute Over Water.

BOYS SENT TO REFORMATORY

Sheriff Bailey Has Trouble in Getting Dr. A. E. Walters From Illinois—Briefs and Personal.

Ogden, Utah, Aug. 31.—William Gill, the man who assaulted Mike Doran a week ago, in a Twenty-fifth street saloon with a knife, which came close to causing Doran's death, was arraigned before Judge Murphy on the charge. He pleaded in open court he desired to waive preliminary hearing and was bound over to answer to the charge to the district court under $500 bond, in default of which he was placed behind the bars at the county jail. The victim of his vicious assault, who has been confined at the Ogden General Hospital, is recovering rapidly and will soon be able to leave the hospital.

Marlin Jensen, the young man who was arrested on the charge of obtaining money by fraud, by securing $22 from a loan office under misrepresentation, pleaded guilty before Judge Murphy, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and default of which he will serve the time on the rock pile.

George Jones, James Jones and William Simpson, the three young men who were arrested by Sheriff Shaw on the charge of attempting to rob a man named Putnam, were arraigned before his honor, who set the preliminary hearing for tomorrow. They were each bailed at $250 each, which was promptly furnished. The young men deny the charge, and will be able to prove that they were only joking with Putnam.

QUARREL OVER WATER.

Willard Cragun of Pleasant View Assaults a Woman in Water Dispute.

Willard Cragun of Pleasant View was arraigned before Judge Murphy on the charge of assault and battery, preferred against him by Truena Van Korman, the testimony introduced was to show that Mr. Cragun quarreled with Mrs. Van Korman over the irrigation water, and in the midst of the fracas he struck her with his fist a heavy blow knocking her to the ground, badly bruising her shoulder and side, also struck her on the hand. The court adjudged Cragun guilty, but desired time to decide on the penalty to impose.

SENT TO INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

Two Young Burglars Committed by Judge Parker to Reformatory.

William O. Eldredge and Arthur H. her, two of the three boys who were arrested by Sergeant Chambers on the charge of burglary and vandalism, aged respectively 17 and 14 years, were sentenced by Judge Patton to the State Industrial school until 21 years of age, unless paroled sooner for good behavior. These boys and Jack Drysdale have committed numerous crimes during the past few weeks. They burglarized H. L. Griffiths' produce store, destroying about $50 worth of property; twice they broke into the Utah stand, stealing candy and fruits. They burglarized tents in Ogden canyon, and committed other crimes, all of which they told the

CITY SCHOOLS OPEN TUESDAY

Officer Seizes Stolen Clothes But Thief Goes Free—News Briefs.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., Aug. 31.—The city schools will open Tuesday. On Saturday at 10 o'clock, the principals and teachers will meet at the several schools to arrange for the opening, and at 4 o'clock they will meet with Salt Lake teachers at the Parker school for the consideration of questions relating to their work. All the school buildings have been thoroughly cleaned and all possible sanitary precautions taken, as is customary every year. The instructions from the state board of health on this subject came too late, the work having already been attended to.

NOT THE THIEF.

A man was arrested this morning by an officer in a noisy town, with the clothing taken from trunks at Thistle Sunday evening in his possession. He told the officer, who is a new man, that he had bought the articles in Nephtali, but was told by the officer that as he (the officer) had a description of the stolen articles he would have to keep them, but would give the man an order on the sheriff for them, which he did.

SECURED THE CLOTHING BUT NOT THE THIEF.

A dangerous explosion would have resulted. There was little wind and the magazine was full of dynamite. A quantity of mine timbers belonging to the company were in danger for a time, but they also were saved.

Do you suffer with indigestion, constipation, feel mean and cross, no strength or appetite? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well. 50 cents, Tea Tablets. Ask your Druggist.

HOMESTEAD FILINGS.

Work Progressing Satisfactorily and With Entire Smoothness.

Special Correspondence.

Vernal, Utah, Aug. 29, via Mack. Colo.—The work of filing on Utah lands is progressing smoothly at the office here. There was a little hitch here and there at the beginning, but all was soon adjusted, and by noon yesterday everything was moving like clock work.

United States Marshal Ben Heywood was on the ground with a force of men to preserve order and prevent any interference with the work by anxious homesteaders and their agents or attorneys.

Out of the 111 numbers called yesterday, 57 responded. Those who waited to appear were, said by Mr. Heywood, all from distant points. The first 12 were all on hand, but number 13 failed to appear.

Roy Daniels, who drew number one, made his filing for land adjoining the upper townsite, as predicted in the "News." Number two, Noah M. Baldock, located alongside of him. Most of the locations made so far are in the upper townsite, and are as yet practically untouched. Number 109 proved to be a Colorado woman, who was one of the happiest of the lot to present a farm. As fast as the filings are made they are posted on a bulletin board in the lobby of the court house, where a dense throng eagerly checks them off on maps placed. At the request of the different locating firms, Register Demorey allowed a man to be chosen to take down all filings the moment they were made and post them for the public. Herbert Tysack was chosen for this task, and has a lively time keeping all filings posted for the eager crowd. Those whose numbers came later, watch eagerly for what is gone and each is hoping that his selection will not be molested.

BINGHAM.

FIRE IN "LITTLE AUSTRIA."

Seven Residents Burned—Loss $1,000—Powder Magazine in Peril.

Bingham, Salt Lake Co., Aug. 31.—Fire of unknown origin, says the Herald special, destroyed seven residences in the heart of "Little Austria" in Carr Fork last night. As the inhabitants cannot speak English it was almost impossible to secure information from them, but the starting of the fire at this time is regarded as suspicious, and many incline to the belief that it was the work of one of the factions of "Little Austria's" vendetta. The houses burned were all small frame structures and the property loss was probably not over $1,000 as the houses were of little value and their inmates did not possess much property. Besides the property to the powder magazine of the Highland Boy mine, the fire caused considerable excitement. This magazine usually contains from 75 to 100 pounds of powder and had it burned

STAKE PRIESTHOOD MEETING.

The regular monthly stake business meeting was held today. There was a very large attendance. The subject of education in recent conversations attracted the attention and the sugar beet question also came up for consideration. During the discussion of the latter subject, it was pointed out that the farmers of the section are apparently in a position of financial straits, and the decision of the Utah Sugar company to build the proposed factory for this section in Sanpete county. Nevertheless, the unanimous sentiment of those who expressed themselves that they would go right ahead and raise sugar beets; that it had been demonstrated to be a profitable industry and should be encouraged.

At the conclusion of the meeting those present were invited to partake of a banquet tendered them by the different organizations of the three different wards. Accordingly all repaired to the grove adjoining the place of meeting, where they were served with a varied supply of good things to eat, the last but not the least item of which was a liberal quantity of watermelon. An impromptu program was rendered, and a very enjoyable time was had.

EUREKA.

HARVEST OF GRIM REAPER.

John Cain Sr., Wm. C. Elton and Samuel Way called hence—County Tax Levy.

Special Correspondence.

Eureka, June Co., Aug. 25.—George, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lang, died Aug. 29.

John Cain, Sr., died today at noon at the residence of his son, of general debility. He was 90 years of age, and was a pioneer Latter-day Saint. He came to Eureka from Plain City, Utah, several months ago, and the remains will be shipped to that city to morrow for burial.

William C. Elton, postmaster at Mammoth, died at his home at that place yesterday. He was 42 years of age, and besides attending to the post-office, he has been keeping the books at Mrs. J. T. Donohue's store. His health began to fail and he took a lease on the building at the corner of the main street, where he contracted blood poisoning from the arsenic in the ore. Mr. Elton leaves a wife and six children to mourn the departure of an affectionate husband and father. Funeral services were conducted at the L. D. S. church this evening, the edifice being filled with friends who came to pay their respect to the memory of a faithful friend and noble citizen. The remains will be taken to Goshen tomorrow for burial.
